Re: All current burning restrictions are rescinded effective noon on September 12, 2018

All current burning restrictions are rescinded effective at noon on Wednesday September 12, 2018.

Based on the most recent Fire Hazard Synopsys and the long term forecast from Metro Vancouver Fire Weather Information all current fire restrictions that are currently in place for the Sasamat Fire Protection Area will be rescinded as of noon September 12, 2018.
